DISCLOSURE NOTICE

Dentists, like all providers of medical services, are now required by law to inform patients of their policies regarding privacy and patient information. Dentists have been and continue to be bound by professional standards of confidentiality that are even more stringent than those required by law. Therefore, we have always protected your right to privacy.

TYPES OF NONPUBLIC PERSONAL INFORMATION WE COLLECT

We collect nonpublic information about you that is provided to us by you with your authorization.

PARTIES TO WHOM WE DISCLOSE INFORMATION

For current and former patients, we do not disclose any nonpublic personal information obtained in the course of our practice except as required or permitted by law. Permitted disclosures include, for instance, providing information to our employees, and in limited situations to unrelated third parties who need to know that information to assist us in providing services to you. In all such situations, we stress the confidential nature of information being shared.

PROTECTING THE CONFIDENTIALITY AND SECURITY OF CURRENT AND FORMER PATIENTS

We obtain records relating to professional services that we provide so that we are better able to assist you with your professional needs and, in some cases, to comply with professional guidelines. In order to guard your nonpublic information we maintain physical, electronic, and procedural safeguards that comply with our professional standards.

Please ask us if you have any questions, because your privacy, our professional ethics, and the ability to provide you with quality dental services are very important to us.
